

FULLERTON TUESDAY 7 PM WOMEN'S WRITING MEETING OF OA
(Questions for writing exercise taken/condensed from THE OA 12 STEP WORKBOOK)

STEP 4: MADE A SEARCHING AND FEARLESS MORAL INVENTORY OF OURSELVES.
(spiritual principle-courage)

WEEK 1: AA BIG BOOK (4th Edition)

page 63, starting with the bottom paragraph to end of chapter, on page 71

SUGGESTED QUESTIONS:

- How can I best approach the daunting task of writing my inventory?
- How can I make writing my inventory more manageable and less overwhelming?

WEEK 2: OA 12 AND 12

(Due to the length of Step 4 in the OA 12&12, we will omit the AA 12&12 this month only and split the OA 12&12 into 2 weeks.) pages 29- 37, end of 1st paragraph ("...authority over us.")

SUGGESTED QUESTIONS:

- How can I take a more balanced view of myself? Why is that important?
- Is something keeping me from doing my searching and fearless inventory? WHAT IS IT?

WEEK 3: OA 12 AND 12 pages 37 ("as we take inventory...") - page 44, end of chapter

SUGGESTED QUESTIONS:

- What are some ways in which I can do my inventory? What approach will I take?
- After I complete my inventory, how will I seek help to review it, and how can I make sure I did not omit anything vital?

WEEK 4: VOICES OF RECOVERY pages 13, 22, 91, 92, 101, 106, 138, 355

SUGGESTED QUESTIONS:

- Am I willing to do an inventory?
- What actions am I willing to take to overcome procrastination and proceed?

ADDITIONAL WEEK: FOR TODAY pages 27, 50, 52, 131, 171, 178, 273, 290, 299, 308

SUGGESTED QUESTIONS:

- Do I really see the importance of doing the inventory? If not, why not?
- Now that I have done my inventory, am I willing to ask God to help me add anything I have left out?